

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

There are 56 entries for the Kentucky Derby May 13.

Now that the Legislature has quit, let winter do likewise.

With two murder cases on the docket, the grand jury has just added five more, all but one being negroes.

Carranza claims to have 15,000 men after Villa and hopes to catch him before Gen. Pershing gets to pushing.

Judge Bill Reed made a big hit as special judge at Owensboro. He has a way of doing that wherever he serves.

If everything is now good and ready, suppose we send brass bands ahead in every direction to announce to Villa that we are about to start a hunt for him.

There are 129,000 state troops available, if needed in Mexico. Kentucky has 168 officers and 2,329 men, more than any Southern state except Georgia and Virginia.

A balky horse decided to balk on a railroad crossing at West Goshlin, N. J., in front of an approaching train, and caused two women and a man in the carriage to be killed.

A Mexican paper at Durango published the startling information that Villa had captured Texas and New Mexico and that President Wilson and his family were fleeing to Canada for safety.

There ought not to be any trial in the case of Villa, other than by martial law. His capture should be followed by summary execution, a job that Carranza would probably like to have a hand in.

Jas. McManus, Jr., a song writer at Los Angeles, proposed to Mrs. Garnett Buckner Martin, a Kentucky grass-widow, who sang one of his songs to suit him at a public function. The widow accepted.

American refugees arriving at Douglas, Ariz., report that Carranza soldiers are as bitter towards Americans as Villa's followers. They report that the Mexicans generally sympathize with Villa.

Former Secretary Bryan approves the invasion of Mexico, saying: "While the outrage is a distressing one and deserves the severest punishment, I am glad the president has not permitted himself to be forced into invasion by those who have been trying for two years to get this country into war with Mexico. This is the first time we have had sufficient cause to cross the border."

Gov. Stanley came to Hopkinsville to get one of the two Republican members on the Board of Control and the coveted honor falls to Hon. Robt. A. Cook, Christian county's representative in the House. This is good news to Bob's friends, who are not confined to his own party by any means. He is a native of this county, worked his way to the front by teaching, later was elected county assessor, got into politics and spent four years at Frankfort under the Wilson administration and has since been an attorney at law. He was turned down by his party when he sought the position of minority leader of the House, but now drops into one of the nicest jobs at the disposal of the Democratic Governor. Now that he is on a non-partisan board, we shall expect him to be more or less neutral in politics—if possible.

DEATH OF MRS. JESUP.

Mrs. Mary Jesup, widow of the late Jas. E. Jesup, of this city, died at her home in Clarksville, Monday night, aged 77 years. She is survived by four daughters, one sister, Mrs. T. T. Watson, of Madisonville, and two brothers, J. P. Thompson, of this city, and R. B. Thompson, of Cadiz. When 16 years old she was married to Stapleton Redd and after his death married Mr. Jesup. For many years she had lived with her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Roach, in Clarksville. She was a member of the Methodist church.

NEARING TIME TO VOTE BOND ISSUE

Indications Now Point to the Success of the Proposition
With Votes to Spare.

RUNNING DOWN CAMPAIGN REPORTS

Grand Jury to Investigate and Report on Charges of Extravagance and Graft.

The close of the campaign for good roads finds the situation much more encouraging than it was a month ago. Opposition to the proposed bond issue has steadily grown less and it is now believed to be practically assured that the proposition will have a safe majority.

The supporters of the proposition are redoubling their efforts to encourage sentiment for the bond issue in this last week. Speakers are being sent to every neighborhood in the county, open air meetings are being held here in town each town. There will be a big final rally at the Tabernacle Friday night and the papers are being kept full of matter. On the other hand, a close organization of the county has been perfected and there will be workers at each of the thirty-two precincts all day Saturday who will put in the last lies possible in behalf of the proposition.

From present indications it is believed the bond issue will carry by a safe majority. The determined opposition which for a time threatened the project seriously has disappeared to a very large extent under the enthusiastic campaign which has been waged. Democrats and republicans have jointly endorsed the proposition and everything has been worked on a bi-partisan basis. A commission of eight men, four republicans and four democrats, and all of them residents of the county, has already been appointed to have charge of the road funds if the proposition carries.

The negro voters have rallied to the proposition very largely since they have been convinced that convict labor is not to be employed on the roads if they are built. As long as the negroes thought convicts would do the work and they would get nothing out of it, they opposed it. But now that the fiscal court, the eight commissioners and the supporters generally of the proposition have declared they would not favor the employment of convicts, the negroes have changed their attitude.

There are at present 216 miles of pike in the county and it is estimated it will take about $1,000 per mile to reconstruct this. If this proves true it will leave about $200,000 for building new pikes which, it is estimated, should build about forty to fifty miles. All of the work will be done under state aid.

County Attorney Ira D. Smith has ordered a full investigation by the grand jury, now in session, of reports spread broadcast through the county that past road funds had been wasted and even grafted. Mr. Smith instructed the grand jury to summon the officials and those who had been spreading the reports and sift the matter thoroughly, make a report of their findings and indict parties should testimony indicate any were guilty. Tuesday the county officials turned over to the grand jury the books of the county, together with warrants for money paid out on road improvements. The officials and members of the fiscal court say the charges are untrue and malicious, and they do not propose to sit quietly and let them go unchallenged.

WINTER STILL LINGERS.

Although the vernal equinox is only a week off, winter still lingers in the lap of spring. Tuesday was a cold, rainy day, the rain turning into hail and snow at night and making a very disagreeable spell of weather. There was two inches of snow on the ground yesterday morning with stormy conditions all day.

OLD BONDS ARE BURNED

Having Been Replaced With
The New Issue of $60,000.

BACK SALARY AS TREASURER

Appropriation Made to Aid the Visiting Nurse in Buying a Conveyance.

The principal item of business at the meeting of the City Commissioners Tuesday was the destruction of the refunded High School bonds called in the first of the month. Bonds to the value of $54,500 were burned, having been replaced by the new bonds.

Lee Oldham was given a contract to repair the fire department building, his bid being $381. Numerous minor repairs will be made and the clock's dial will be given a much needed coat of paint.

Former Treasurer H. L. McPherson was allowed $100 back salary, being an allowance of $50 a year as custodian of the park funds.

An appropriation of $100 was made towards securing a conveyance for Mrs. Marion Sager, the visiting nurse. A committee of citizens agreed to raise the balance necessary to buy a vehicle. Mrs. Sager was requested to submit a monthly report of her work in the city.

MORE MUSIC FOR CROFTON

Old Fiddlers' Contest to be

Night.

An old time fiddlers' contest will be given at Crofton next Saturday night. The entertainment will be held in the school house and will be under the management of Messrs. W. A. Nichols, R. A. Croft, H. A. Jones and J. M. Burkholder. Several from this city will participate in the contest.

Meningitis Victim.

Joseph Newman, of Allen county, died at the Western State Hospital Monday night of meningitis. He was 24 years old. The remains were taken to Scottsville for interment.

John Henry Wood, a Confederate veteran in the Tennessee Soldiers' Home, will be 101 years old May 13.

FIVE FOR MURDER

The Grand Jury Brings In Another Big Batch of True Bills.

T. J. TAYLOR IS INDICTED

One Other White Man Is In The List, Charged With Horse Stealing.

Another bunch of 28 indictments were returned Tuesday.

The list includes one for murder against T. J. Taylor, of Stewart county, Tennessee, who shot and killed Claud Knight here on the night of January 1 for alleged alienation of Mrs. Taylor's affections and causing her to leave her home and family. He gave bond a few days after the killing and has been at liberty since then.

Walter LeMay, a white man, was indicted for horse stealing.

Robert Brounagh, colored, was indicted for murder. Mary Bell Cooper was his alleged victim, it being charged that he cut the girl on the leg, from which wound she later died.

Jack West, colored, is also indicted for murder in the killing of Ed Wilbur.

Frank Postell, col., is indicted for the murder of another negro. W. O. Soyars and L. K. Wood were appointed to defend him and his trial is set for the 19th day of court.

Otho Chiles and Sara Belle McReynolds are jointly indicted for murder. They too are negroes.

Other indictments are as follows:

Sam Moore, breaking into a store-house.

Charlie Flowers, carrying a concealed weapon.

Garrott Fortson, same.

Garrott Fortson, shooting at with-out wounding.

Gus Wiley and Owen Marshall, grand larceny.

John Wright, cutting with intent to kill.

George Sharp, grand larceny.

Lawrence Whitlock, robbery.

Nick Quarles, burglary, four counts.

Sanders Lindsay, bigamy.

Preston Mayes, house breaking.

John Frazier, grand larceny.

Frank Rives, Joe White and Will White, robbery.

Same parties, for striking and wounding with intent to kill.

Joe Blanton and Saunders Billingsley, house breaking.

The case of Bob Brounagh is set for the 21st day and John Feland appointed to defend.

JIM CROW LAW VOTED DOWN

House Kills Measure in Last Day's Session of Legislature.

THE PIKE COUNTY SCANDAL

Rumors of Use of Money On Division Measure Are Discredited.

Frankfort, Ky., March 15.—The most turbulent session of the legislature in Kentucky's history came to an end at midnight when hands on the clocks in both chambers were turned back to give the legislature a few hours more time in which to clean up urgent business.

Two things stood out in legislative proceedings—the defeat of the Jim Crow law in the house, providing for separate street car compartments for blacks and whites, and a report to the senate discrediting rumors and charges of money being corruptly spent by persons interested in the division of Pike county. The Jim Crow law had passed the senate. The proposed act to divide Pike county was defeated.

Ignoring a petition signed by fifty-two representatives, the house rules committee again refused to bring out the Taylor anti-shipment bill, which fixes a limit on the amount of whisky and beer which can be sent into "dry" territory.

The "drys" made an effort yesterday to bring up the measure over the heads of the committee, but was frustrated by the "two-thirds rule."

The bill for the regulation of trading stamp concerns, supported by the business men of Louisville, was lost in the senate after a prolonged debate when a motion to suspend the rules and bring the measure up for consideration was defeated.

MR. WYATT HAS RESIGNED

His Connection With Chambers
& Co., and Will Move to Toledo, O.

Mr. T. E. Wyatt, who has for the last four years been connected with the wholesale grocery house of W. A. Chambers & Co., has resigned and will leave Saturday for Toledo, O., to make his home.

MR. T. E. WYATT.

He will become state agent for the States Motor Car Co., of Kalamazoo, Mich., for the States Car.

Mr. Wyatt, who came here from Elkton, at once became one of Hopkinsville's most popular and progressive citizens and his departure will occasion much regret, not only in business circles but in social circles as well. Mrs. Wyatt is a lady of many accomplishments and has a wide circle of friends. Their leaving is a distinct loss to the city in many ways.

Mass Attacks Northwest of Verdun Gain But Little Progress.

FRENCH SHELL ARGONNE FOREST

Italians Continue Big Infantry
Offensive on Isonzo Front.

Extremely heavy infantry fighting has taken place northwest of Verdun, and on the outskirts of the Bois des Buttes, to the north of the Aisne, with the Germans in both regions the aggressors. Elsewhere along the line, artillery duels of great proportions are under way.

In the sector between Bethincourt and Cumieres, northwest of Verdun, the intense artillery bombardment of the Germans was followed by an infantry attack, but over the entire front of three miles it was repulsed by the French with serious losses, except between Bethincourt and Le Mort Homme, where the Germans gained a footing at two points in the French trenches.

The Germans three times to the north of the Aisne threw their troops against the French positions northwest of Bois des Buttes, but none of the attacks proved successful.

In the forest of Argonne the French guns effectively shelled German positions. North and east of Verdun the artillery duels continue. To the north of St. Mihiel, in Lorraine, and in the Vosges mountains, the guns of both sides have been active. A large number of fights in the air have taken place around Verdun. In these, four German aircraft have been brought down. French aviators have again bombarded the station of Brielle, behind the German lines north of Verdun.

The British evidently are breaking up the opposition of the Senussi tribesmen, led by Turkish officers, in western Egypt. An official report received from Maj.-Gen. Peyton, commander of the British forces, says the occupation of Sollum, on the Egyptian-Tripoli frontier, is imminent; that the sheik harun has surrendered and is in the hands of Aulaid Ali tribe are asking for pardons.

The Russians are still harassing the Turks on the Caucasus front and have made further progress against the Teutons in east Galicia. They entered German trenches in the region of Riga, killed the occupants and returned to their own positions without suffering any loss.

The Italians are keeping up their strong infantry offensive, begun several days ago, on the Isonzo front. Especially fierce have been the attacks around San Martino. Here, Rome says, the Italians captured Dante Del Croviglio, the pivot in the Austrian defense, and in the same region stormed two other places and seized Austrian trenches.

Vienna on the other hand, declares that near San Martino, the Italians seven times attempted to storm the Austrian positions, but were repulsed with heavy casualties.

"Rail Road Pitchfork."

Our steamed contemporary, the Scottville Citizen, whose editor is R.
R. Pitchfork, but ought to be Pitchfork, has been grossly insulted by the Kentuckian's more or less playful reference to Allen as a "back county," as shown by the following "pointed"
remarks:

"O WAD SOME POWER."

The Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a
"weakly" newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, in an envious rage, took a cut at Allen county when it editorially referred to Thurman B. Dixon as an "impassioned orator from a back county." While it is true we may be among the hills and hoot owls, but we have never disgraced the Commonwealth or maligning the honor of a political party by having produced anything like Barksdale Hamlett.
Neither do we house criminals who stand charged with the murderous ambushing of a sheriff. While you live in an enlightened section and in the very heart of the "Pennyrite," the blood-stained history of Christian county is a vivid reminder of the Dark Ages.

"O wad some power the giftie
gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us!"

Christian county is not ashamed of its reputation anywhere, if we may except its rather bad habit of sometimes going Republican. The unkind criticisms of Mr. Hamlett by a political adversary evidently much prejudiced, have no proper place in this discussion. As to the homicide referred to, the men charged with the crime
are of the race that supplies something ke of $5,000 of the Republican votes of the state. Moreover the negroes have been "harbored" while under penitentiary sentences that the court of appeals saw fit to reverse.

More Skirmishes.

Alexander the Great's campaigns,
Caesar's wars and Napoleon's threefold battle front seem limited and almost trivial when viewed in the light
of one day's news of the present war.
Prussians, Austrians and Slavs struggle in Poland, Galicia and on the slopes of the Carpathian mountains; west, central and eastern France, including Alsace, send reports of armies locked in a fierce struggle; Flanders gives the story of surging masses; the Caucasus witnesses fierce fighting; Persia sends word of a Moslem reverse; Turkish troops are routed on the sands of Arabia; Indian mutineers are suppressed on the Malay peninsula, German colonial soldiers are driven from Kamerun, in western equatorial Africa; German East Africa chronicles an engagement; Smyrna, in Asia Minor, is shelled; British and French troops land near Enos, in European Turkey; Mesopotamia sees a rout of Arab tribes in Turkish pay; the northern border of Italy is swarming with Italian regiments; an aerial engagement is fought over the beautiful Rhine; a submarine is sunk off

NOT AN EASY THING TO DO

Matter of Training Birds to Sing Dependent on Finding a Certain Kind of Wife.

A certain old fellow is as well known for his dry humor as for his success in rearing canaries. Singing contests are of frequent occurrence
in the district, and "Old Sam's"
warblers appear to be all-conquering.

Not long ago, when the first prize
in a contest had once more been carried off by Sam's feathered champion, an unsuccessful competitor approached the old man.

"Look here, Sam," he began. "I wish you'd just give us a hint. I won't let it go any farther. You've a system in training your birds?"

"Well," responded Sam, "it ain't exactly a system—call it assistance."

"What do you mean?"

"Just this," said the old fellow.

"Birds talk best when a woman talks.

The more a woman shouts the better
a bird'll sing."

"Yes, but—"

"That's all," remarked Sam. "If ye would train a bird like mine, ye must first find a wife like mine!"

And," he added, as the other turned away, "that'll melbe eap ye!"

MODIFIED REQUIREMENT.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs.
Torkins, "I want you to promise not to bet on another horse race."

"All right, but I have a wonderfully straight tip on a horse that runs tomorrow, and the odds won't be less than twenty to one."

"You don't let me finish. What I was going to say is that I don't want you to bet on another horse race
after the first of next month."

Food That Doesn't Show Dirt.

One day I visited a delicatessen shop to ask the owner to cover the food. His reply was: "I can't keep all my food in a glass case." A survey of the store showed me that he had a glass case in which he had carefully placed all of his canned goods, while on the top of the case there was a display of salads and cooked meats.
I asked him why he didn't reverse
the situation and he said, "I hadn't thought of it." Probably he hadn't,
but to my mind came this thought:
Canned goods would have to be dusted every morning, but mayonnaise and potato salad and lemon pies do not have to be dusted.—Housewives'

SOME OF THE OLD "TIPPLES"

Early Housekeepers Had Many Recipes That Have Been Handed Down to Posterity.

Whether there will be a revival during the next few years of the domestic art of making wine is a matter of pure conjecture, but it is interesting to recall that formerly many common things that grow around us were utilized by thrifty housewives in the preparation of "tipples" that were more or less mild or more or less potent.
Generally the wine-making potential-ities of these things are little thought of now, and in most homes, even in country homes, wine-making processes
have been forgotten.

Reference has recently been made to the making of dandelion wine, a sweet and potent wine prepared with the aid of the golden flowers of the dandelion. Elderberry wine and elderflower wine were made in most of the rural homes in the Potomac country a generation or so ago. Blackberries were gathered industriously by the children for conversion into jam and wine or cordial, and raspberries were especially sought after that wine could be made from them. It is probable that in the minds of elderly persons today there is preserved a better memory of raspberry vinegar than of raspberry wine, for it was popularly believed that raspberry vinegar was superior to that made from apples.

In cherry time the fruit was treasured because it could be preserved or converted into a familiar tipplo called
"cherry hounce," a drink which at certain stages of its "aging" or development was exhilarating and intoxicating.

The flavor of gooseberry wine was known and esteemed by most of the grandmothers and grandfathers of present Washingtonians.

On all the old farms there was a little distillery, though on some farms
it was not so little, just as there was an icehouse and a smokehouse, where the peaches and apples and grapes
could be distilled into fruit brandy.

Cider-making was a ceremony, and in the late fall when frost had pinched and somewhat shriveled the persimmons a strange potation called persimmon beer was made.

Parsnip wine was made by British housewives before emigration to America set in, and the art of making this wine was brought over by the early immigrants. There was also in colonial times in America a drink which was called peppermint wine, or peppermint liqueur.

Carbon in Gravity Cells.

Carbon can be used instead of copper in gravity cells with good results.
Several carbons should be removed from worn out dry cells, thoroughly cleaned and connected together. After a few hours of short circuit a coating of copper from the copper sulphate solution will form on the carbon surface which will perform the function of the usual copper electrode very well. It must be understood, however, that a loss of efficiency will result, as carbon has much greater resistance than copper.—Popular Science Monthly and World's Advance.

POULTRY

PREPARE GEESSE FOR MARKET

Many Farm Flocks Would Pay Hand- somely If Proper Attention Paid to Fattening of Fowls.

There are many reasons why geese and ducks are not more popular table fowls than they are, but the chief reason is that they are so poorly fitted for the market.

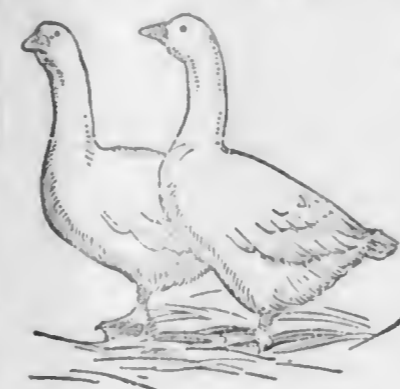

Many a farm flock of ducks and geese would pay a more handsome profit if some attention was paid to the fattening of it.

First, a young duck or goose must be had for fattening. Stock that is too old is not sweet and tender as it should be. One cannot build up a reputation by selling it.

Old stock, if less than three or four seasons of age, is better for breeding purposes than for market.

Youngsters hatched from the eggs of yearling and two-year-old ducks, and geese are the most vigorous.

A crate with a slatted bottom and set up on the floor or ground in an open shed is an ideal arrangement for winter fattening.

Provide a trough to fit in front of each crate and let the birds feed through the slats.

Arrange to give plenty of water or skim milk at all times. Dairy wastes can be well utilized in mixing up mash foods for fattening the fowls.

Do not crowd too many fowls in a crate. Let there be room enough for each bird to stand at the trough without trampling each other.

The birds should be provided with plenty of sharp gravel or other grit. Start them on full feed at once and keep them on it for 15 days at least.

A duck or goose will lay on a large amount of fat in this time if properly fed. It is about as long as a water fowl can be fed with profit.

Feed a mash food of corn chow and oats three times daily. Let the base of this mash be soft, but not too soft. It must have a bulky base of some kind in order to do the fowl the most good. Corn meal alone is not a good fattener.

The idea of feeding mash food is that it puts more flesh on the fowls because it is more easily assimilated by the fowls' systems.

Ducks and geese well fitted are always in big demand in the cities. Culls and poor and old stock will never bring over market prices.

EXERCISE FOR LAYING HENS

When Feeding Grain Scatter It Far and Wide and Make Fowls Hustle to Gather It Up.

In the first place do not overfeed. Bear in mind that if a hen is to be kept in laying condition, she must have exercise. When you feed grain, do not put it in a trough where the hens can stand and eat their fill, but scatter it far and wide, as the hens will find every grain. If the snow is on the ground after the cold season sets in, throw the grain in leaves or cut straw, so as to keep them busy. Do not feed grain exclusively, but give a variety. Allow ground meat or meat and bone fresh from the butcher, three times a week. Vary the grain, feeding corn, wheat and oats, and give cabbage, cooked turnips, clover leaves or any other food that the hens will eat.

FIVE SOUND POULTRY RULES

Keep Nests Clean—Gather Eggs Twice Daily and Store in Cool Place—Sell the Roosters.

It is urged that all farmers and poultrymen adhere strictly to the following rules in handling their poultry and eggs:

1. Keep the nests clean; provide one nest for every four hens.
2. Gather the eggs twice daily.
3. Keep the eggs in a cool, dry room or cellar.
4. Market the eggs at least twice a week.
5. Sell, kill, or confine all male birds as soon as the hatching season is over.

Feathers From Geese.

The big Toulouse goose should produce you something over a dollar's worth of feathers a year even where the feather market is known to be cheap, as in the far-out country places. Add this to its other profit and you have a valuable asset for profit in such a goose.

Additional to obtaining every issue of this paper for a year, our readers will receive in "Lippincott's" 12 great complete novels by popular authors, 105 short stories, crisp, entertaining, or glib, 45 timely articles from the pens of masters, and each month some excellent poems with the right sentiment, and "Walnuts and Wine," the most popular humor section in America. To obtain this extraordinary offer, prompt action is necessary. Remit to J. B. Lippincott Company, Washington Square, Philadelphia, Pa.

Grindstones From Bay.

Some of the finest grindstones in the world come from the bottom of the Bay of Fundy. The stonecutters there have a simple method of moving them to the shore. Workmen quarry the stones from the solid rock when the tide is out, and fasten them to a large flat-bottomed boat. The tides in the Bay of Fundy are the highest in the world; they rise from 50 to 75 feet, and rush in with great swiftness. The tide lifts the flatboat with the stones attached; the workmen bring the boat ashore and remove the stones at their leisure.

Big Smoke.

Fire that swept the tobacco rehandling plant of Dunkerson and Company, Louisville, caused a combined loss estimated at $100,000. One hundred men were at work in the factory when it was discovered and a number of them were slightly injured when they rushed panic stricken from the flaming structure. Several residences nearly caught fire, but the occupants were removed uninjured by firemen. The amount of insurance carried on the plant was not stated.

WORLD'S LEADING TOBACCO TOWN

Winston-Salem, N. C., Now Manufactures More Tobacco Products Than Any Other City in the World.

Following are extracts from an address delivered by Col. A. D. Watts, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Fifth District of North Carolina, at a smoker given by The Twin City Club, Winston-Salem, February 4th, 1916:

"SOME COMPARISONS"

"Winston-Salem is supplying one-fourth of all the chewing and smoking tobacco consumed in the United States, besides exporting vast quantities to foreign lands. This statement is taken from the report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the first quarter of the present fiscal year and from private advices from Washington as to the second quarter, which ended December 31st, last.

"Your city is making one-seventh of all tobacco products—chewing and smoking tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff—manufactured in the United States. Your manufacturers are paying on an average about $37,000 a day revenue taxes to the government and the amount is increasing from month to month. When your government building, much the handsomest in the State, was completed last July at a cost of $250,000 your newspapers made the statement that the taxes paid in your city to Uncle Sam for the first eight days of its occupancy would pay for it. Since September, it has taken only a fraction over seven average days collections here to equal its cost. So far this week, Mr. Cranford has taken in $206,423.50. I predict that before 1916 shall have ended your average weekly payments to the government on tobacco will more than pay for this magnificent building, leaving the collections for the other fifty-one weeks as clear profit to the government.

"TOBACCO SHIPMENTS"

"Winston-Salem is shipping on an average each week day to all parts of this country and to foreign lands at least $150,000 of tobacco products.

"In conclusion, Winston-Salem manufactures more tobacco, all tobacco products are taken into this statement than any other city on earth, little or big. Industrially, she is easily first in North Carolina, population considered, first in America and I believe, in the world; socially, a never failing delight to her friends."

Aluminum production in the United States totaled 80,000,000 pounds last year.

SHORTAGE OF PAPER

STOCK IS DISCUSSED

Circulars to Urge Saving of Rags by Housewives.

Washington, March 15.—Shortage of paper stock in the United States was discussed at a conference today between Secretary Redfield and Charles A. Holder, of the foreign trade adviser's office. France's embargo on the export of rags has caused many American manufacturers to fear they may have to curtail production of their mills.

The department of commerce recently appealed to housewives to save old papers and rags. Today the department began sending out 1,000,000 circulars to be posted in postoffices and elsewhere throughout the country urging that papers and rags be saved. The commerce department promises to put those who save papers and rags in touch with manufacturers. Chambers of commerce and trade associations have been asked to co-operate.

A Republican's View.

INCORPORATED

BILLY SUNDAY

Some of His Remarks at Revival Meetings in Baltimore.

I know no more about theology than a jack rabbit does about ping-pong, or an elephant about crocheting. You talk about your culture. You wear a pin as a member of a literary society, and you couldn't quote ten verses of the Bible to save your soul from hell.

I would as soon shake the tail of a dead eel as the hand of a fool woman.

We are trying to get into Heaven by culture instead of by the blood-red road of the cross.

Too much of the preaching nowadays is too pretty, too nice, too dainty. It doesn't kill.

The minister has to look out for the War Department—that's the choir.

Good music will give the devil cold feet. I suppose that is the reason so many sermons start in the choir loft.

You are sure to have your own home looking fine. You don't care if your own church looks like a rummage sale or a junk shop.

God is entitled to the best church that can be built. I don't believe in worshipping God in a little chicken coop.

See that the minister's salary is always behind. He doesn't have to eat like the rest of you. God sent the ravens, and He's got plenty yet.

I got my old gun and loaded it with ipecac, dynamite, rock salt and railroad spikes, and I pulled the trigger and the gang has been hunting their holes, and the fathoms have been flying ever since.

Some women's tongues are so long they can sit in the parlor and lick the skillet in the kitchen.

You can thank God with one breath and run down and vilify and assassinate somebody's character in the next.

Gratitude to God is never coupled with the defamation of His creature. Every church is cursed with a few buttinskys who try to run the business.

Lot of people join the church from the same motive that a man blows up a safe—for what he can get out of it.

I have loaned money to ball players and actors and actresses, and all the money I have ever been skinned out of in my life I have been beaten out of by church members.

The less religion you've got the longer it takes to express it.

We are just choking religion and killing it with formality.

Some people are omnipotent when they go on their knees. The prayers of some are never answered; they never know what it is to have a prayer answered from God.

The Pharisees were the biggest devils in Jerusalem, although they were the best theologians in Jerusalem.

You can't stand in the pulpit and talk of the sovereignty of God and rip me up the back at the same time. If I cut out of my sermons what everyone doesn't like they will look like spiked cannon in an abandoned fort, with bird's nests in the muzzles.

The Pharisees were the church gang of that day, the church gang in the day of Jesus.

Religion is all right. Christianity is not a fault. It is the hypocrites

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
No Alum—No Phosphate

who profess it that are at fault.

We are going daffy over culture. It is all right in its place, but it is all wrong when you make it take the place of Christianity. America needs a tidal wave of religion, a cyclone of redemption.

All the culture in the world won't educate anybody out of hell.

When you get right down to facts there is nothing wrong with people but the devil in them.

God is not anxious about your clothes, or whether you come in a limousine or on hoof. He wants your personality; you can't place a little money on the collection plate on Sunday, and then go to the devil the rest of the week.

Treat your wife fifty years after you're married the same way you treated her fifty minutes after the ceremony.

It makes me sick to see a man gadding about, ignoring his wife during her lifetime and placing flowers on her grave. Why doesn't he give her the flowers when she can smell them?

It will be better to use the money you will spend on a rosewood coffin for your wife to employ a hired girl.

Go home and love your wife for a change, even though it will frighten her at first.

Love is a sure thing. You can't quarantine it, you can't vaccinate it and you can't reason with it.

If some of you women would take off your head the hair that isn't growing there, you would look like a humming bird in a thunderstorm.

You can't pray "Thy Kingdom Come" then walk up to the polls and vote for the dirty, rotten whisky business.

When you put whisky in hell you will do away with crime.

Red whisky and virtue won't lodge in the same skin.

God has nothing too good for you if you have the manhood to say: "God I am an old dead beat!"

Many a man prays in the time of trouble, but when he can stick his thumbs in his armpits and take a pair of scissors and cut his coupons, it is "Good-by, God; I'll see you later."

INDIANA U. S. SENATOR DEAD

Senator Shively Succumbs To Complication of Diseases.

Washington, D. C., March 15.—Benjamin F. Shively, senior Senator from Indiana and for years a prominent figure in Congress, died late Tuesday at Washington. He had been ill many months from a complication of diseases and for more than a year had been unable to perform actively his official duties. He was 53 years old.

He was a Democrat and a party leader, whose home was at South Bend.

As the Indiana Legislature is not in session it will devolve on Gov. Samuel L. Ralston to select a United States Senator to serve until the November elections. That the Indiana Governor will select Thomas Taggart, of Indianapolis and French Lick, the Democratic national committeeman, to succeed Senator Shively, is the general belief here.

As the term of Senator Kern expires next March, it will be necessary for Indiana to elect two United States Senators in November.

NOTICE!

The holders of the $40,000 of High School Bonds of date April 1, 1910, issued by the City of Hopkinsville, and running for a period of twenty years, with right to redeem same at the expiration of five years at any interest paying period, are hereby notified that the City of Hopkinsville will on the 1st day of April, 1916, by and through its Commissioner of Finance, at the City Bank & Trust Company in the City of Hopkinsville, redeem all of said issue of $40,000 of school bonds, by the payment in full of the principal and interest due upon said bonds at said date and they are further notified that the payment of interest upon said bonds will cease upon said date.

The holders of the $30,000 of the High School Bonds of the City of Hopkinsville of date December 1, 1911, and running for a period of twenty years, with option to the city to redeem any or all of said bonds at the expiration of five years, at any interest paying period, and also an additional option by contract with the holders of said bonds to redeem any and all of said bonds at any time upon the payment of the principal and accrued interest, will take notice that the City of Hopkinsville will elect and does elect, to exercise its right to redeem all of said $30,000 of bonds on the first day of April, 1916, by the payment in full of principal and interest upon said bonds, and the holders of same are further notified that interest upon said bonds will cease after the first day of April, 1916, and they are further notified that W. R. Wicks, Commissioner of Public Finance, will be at the City Bank & Trust Company, in the City of Hopkinsville, on the said first day of April, 1916, for the purpose of redeeming all of the bonds hereinbefore mentioned, by the payment in full of principal and interest to the holder, or holders of said bonds, and said bond holders will govern themselves accordingly.

This 22nd day of February, 1916.

Griffin-McMath.

Mr. Guy E. Griffin and Mrs. Ora Twyman McMath were married last evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Joe Ferguson, at 504 South Liberty street. Only a few close friends were present. Dr. Lewis Powell officiated.

The groom is an employe of the Tin department of the Forbes Manufacturing Co. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Twyman. The young couple will go to housekeeping in a cottage on 14th street.

RECENT OPERATIONS

At The Jennie Stuart Memorial Hospital

Miss Lee White was operated upon Monday with good results.

Ed Reno, a printer in the Kentuckian office, underwent an operation for appendicitis Tuesday, and is doing well.

Miss Janie Walker was operated on successfully Tuesday morning.

Miss May Jennings, of Earlington, who was operated on Saturday, continues to improve.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

IN A MUG ON MANTELPIECE

Resting Place of Old Maid Who Believed in Cremation Thus Described by Faithful Domestic.

Mary and Nora had lived as faithful domestics for many years in a home whose only other occupants were two old maids. One of these was a believer in cremation. Nora took a trip to Ireland. During her absence the old maid mentioned died.
Her dust was reverently put in an urn above the sitting-room fireplace, where the remaining sister could always have a sense of the departed's presence.

A year later Nora returned, to the surprise of Mary, who gave her a warm welcome.

"I'm glad to see ye back," said
Mary, taking the wraps.

"I'm glad to be back," said Nora—then added—"Is there any chance of comin' to live wid ye again?"

"There's only the one of them here
now," said Mary, reverently.

"Where's the other?" asked Nora.
In astonishment.

"She's up in the mug on the mantelpiece."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Resourceful.

"What are your constituents going to do about your failure to get an appropriation for Crawfish creek?"

"I don't know," replied Senator Sorghum. "Maybe this year it will go dry for keeps. Then we might work up a proposition to loosen up some expenditures by having it paved as a public highway."

Extra Work.

"That baseball pitcher has a rather spectacular delivery."

"So he has. Do you suppose he hopes to harm the batter by his conditions?"

"Perhaps, or it may be merely his way of showing that he is earning his salary."

THE DAMAGE.

Doubletew—Was anything broken
when you fell on the street?

Ecks—Someone cracked a smile and I broke a new rule of propriety.

No Chance.

"You never can tell how a man is going to turn out."

"Sometimes you can."

"For instance?"

"When I see a fellow who would rather stay in bed all day than go out wearing socks that don't match his tie, I know he'll never be the president of a railroad."

Nothing More Useful.

"I suppose you have a great deal of poetry to handle in the spring," said
the visitor.

"Oh, yes," answered the frayed and frazzled editor. "But there are times
when a manuscript contains just what I'm looking for."

"And what is that?"

"Stamps."

Taking a Gloomy View.

"What a beautiful edifice that railway station is."

"Yes. But I can't say I approve of it," replied Mr. Growcher. "Every time I look at the immense palatial structure I feel sorry for the poor railroads whose desire to elevate public taste has led them to live beyond their means."

His Bread and Butter.

"I met Biffers' wife yesterday. Talks
all the time, doesn't she?"

"Yes."

"I never heard Biffers complain about it."

"He'd better not. She supports him
by lecturing."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Helps Some.

"A woman is never happy unless she is in style."

"Perhaps that is true, but she can get a great deal of comfort out of knowing that some woman is not in style."

The Difference.

"How is it that one of those brothers succeeded so well in business
while the other went to state prison?"

"Well, you see, one forged ahead and the other forged a hand."

A Usual Title.

"What is that distinguished-looking Mexican's name?"

"I don't remember. Just call him
'general' and the chances are that you won't go wrong."

No Impression.

"I know of one place where a wireless call for help would have no effect."

"Where is that?"

"An intelligence office."

LETTUCE FOR THE TABLE

Much Depends on Its Proper Preparation and Arrangement When It Is Served.

When lettuce comes from the market, clean in cold water and look it over carefully to see that all dirt and insects are removed. Place on a piece of dampened cheesecloth, then roll up and put on the ice, when it will be ready for use and will often stay fresh for a week. Some persons complain of sleepiness after eating lettuce. This is due to the lactucin in lettuce, which the milky juice contains. This juice may be removed by cutting from the lettuce the lower end of the heads or stalks and then standing the lettuce in cold water for several hours before using. Keep the head intact when you wish to quiet
the nerves or to induce sleep.

The following is a pretty lettuce relish for luncheon or dinner and may be served in a small cut glass dish:
Line the dish with lettuce leaves upon which place either ripe or green olives and tiny red tomatoes. Chill with cracked ice. The olives and tomatoes may be taken with the fingers at any time during the meal.

Hot-Water Platter.

Those who have to solve the problem of cold dining rooms, especially at breakfast time, will find greater comfort in the use of the hot-water platter. Boiling water is turned into the tank under the platter and the top screwed on. Then the nickel cover is placed over the food, which keeps hot and in perfect order for at least thirty minutes. The original outlay seems a little large, as the medium-sized outfit costs about nine dollars,
but with careful use it will repay
one in the comfort of hot meals. There is also the round hot-water plate
which is excellent for the breakfast tray or invalid's use.

Egg Patties.

Beat eggs lightly and add crushed
cracker crumbs till it forms a thick
paste, then thin with a little milk.
Season with finely cut onion, pepper and salt. Fry in butter, like pancakes. Very good and something different.

Excellent Dust Cloth.

Split and sew together the upper halves of fine cotton hose. Place these dust cloths in an airtight pail with a few drops of kerosene sprinkled on them and leave to stand 24 hours. This makes an inexpensive dustless duster.

When Making Starch.

It is a good plan, when making starch, to shave off some fine pieces
of soap and add them to the starch.
This gives a beautiful glossy finish to collars and cuffs, and will prevent the irons sticking.

When Dinner Is Late.

If you want the contents of a saucepan to cook quickly, never leave a spoon in it. The spoon carries off great deal of the heat and delays the boiling.

COOKED IN ITALIAN STYLE

Delicious Ways of Preparing Fruit
That May Be a Novelty to Some Housewives.

For the many who prefer cooked to raw fruits the various delicious ways
known to the Italians may be received with pleasure.

Different from the usual apple sauce is this method of cooking. Pare and quarter apples of any size, drop into a saucepan, for every six apples add the juice of one orange, and a quarter of the peel sliced with the pulp. If not sufficient juice a little water may be added and granulated sugar—taste. Cook only until the apples are tender, not long enough for them to lose form. Pears cooked the same way are very good.

Apricots, fresh or dried, are cooked in the same way. If dried soak for eight or ten hours. Place in a baking pan, cover with sugar and marsala
wine, or a good quality of sherry.
Place in the oven, cook until soft and juicy, hastening occasionally. Plums will be found equally good cooked as apricots.

Prunes, always seasonable, are wonderfully delicious when prepared in the true Italian way. Soak over night prunes of any size in sufficient red wine to cover the fruit and for each pound of fruit add half a cup of granulated sugar. Cook until tender and add more wine if much juice is desired. Just what the wine does to the flavor of the prunes it is difficult to say, but certainly they are well worth trying. Dried cherries, as well as the fresh ones, are good cooked this way, and blackberries stewed with claret instead of water will prove a new delicacy.

Peaches cooked with brandy are of course not a novelty, but peaches cooked with raspberry syrup instead of sugar and the usual brandy will be something to remember.

CHINTZ NEEDS GREAT CARE

Precautions Must Be Taken When
There Is Need of Washing This Delicate Fabric.

The housewife whose home is filled with dainty chintz draperies and covers is often troubled by the fact that each time her chintz is washed its lovely designs grow a bit lighter, until they are so faint as to be almost indistinguishable.

Of course the fading is all due to the way the chintzes are laundered,
and a little more care in that department will keep the bright colors practically the same as new.

The chintz should be soaked in cold water made briny with plenty of salt and vinegar. When the brine has thoroughly penetrated all through the goods a little hot water should be run into the tub; not enough to make the tub full of warm water, just enough to make it tepid. The washing should not be done with a very strong acid soap—in fact, a soft soap is preferable.

When the chintz is hung up to dry care should be taken that it is not put up in the direct sunshine, but is hung in the shade. When not quite dry it should be taken down and ironed
from the wrong side. The great thing in preserving the colors of chintz is not to let heat come in contact with the right side of the goods. Of course the irons will have to be fairly hot in order that the chintz may look fresh and without wrinkles, but this heat should be applied to the wrong side of the goods.

How to Clean Suede.

If you are wearing a pair of fashionable shoes it goes without saying that they have some suede somewhere in their makeup. They have suede tops or they have suede trimmings, or some place there is some suede.

Also, as a matter of fact, the suede becomes soiled rather easily. Now, there are several sorts of cleaners sold for suede and all of them are fairly good. But a woman who has had much experience with cleaning suede says that the best way to clean it is to rub it with a fine emery cloth. This literally rubs off the dirt and leaves
the suede smooth and clean.

Old-Fashioned Baked Indian Pudding.

This is the ideal dessert to follow roast pork or pork and beans. If made right, this pudding when taken from the oven will be of quivering, jelly-
like consistency, and if any is left over it can be stemmed for next day.
Bring a quart of fresh milk to a boil,
then sprinkle in a cupful and a quarter of fine granulated meal, holding it high with the left hand and stirring with the right. When this is thickened and cooled a little, three-quarters of a cupful of molasses, a half teaspoonful of salt and two teaspoonfuls of ginger are stirred in and the mixture beaten until smooth.

A stone pudding dish is now to be well buttered and the batter poured in,
and at the last moment a quart of cold milk added. Bake in a very slow oven four or five hours and serve with hard sauce or cream.

Aunt Susan's Cake.

One and one-half cupfuls sugar, half cupful butter, one egg, one teaspoonful cinnamon, one cupful sour milk,
one teaspoonful soda dissolved in milk, one cupful chopped raisins, two heaping cupfuls flour.

Strawberry Salad.

Choose the heart leaves of a head of lettuce, snap a few strawberries in each and dust them lightly with powdered sugar. Put a teaspoonful of mayonnaise on each portion and serve cut lemons with them. Delicious.

ADVANCED CAUSE OF WOMAN

Ibsen Has Right to Be Classed as Great Feminist Writer—Has Always Championed Cause.

One aspect of Ibsen's work deserves attention, especially as connected with modern movements in social and intellectual life. This is the extraordinary prominence which he has given to women in his dramas, and especially to women as representing the individualistic idea as against state action or collectivism. Ibsen undoubtedly thought, as most of his dramas prove, that all state action as such, whether exercised through a compact majority or through police or other agencies, is entirely harmful and crippling because it puts chains upon the individual.

As against society the individual is always right.

Now, who are the great individuals?

Women undoubtedly, who not only attack problems in their own fashion, but instinctively resist the pressure of laws imposed upon them, as it seems to their intelligence, in an entirely arbitrary manner.

Hence the importance of woman in Ibsen's plays, and hence, too, the idea, for which, indeed, there is a good deal to be said, that Ibsen was the great feminist writer, doing more for the cause of woman both as poet and artist than any thinker had done before him.

WANTED TO SEE THE END

Oscar Wilde's Irreverent Joke Concerning the Biblical Version of Voyage of the Apostle Paul.

"The death at Ypres of Capt. Cyril Holland reminds me of an Oscar Wilde story, for the brave and handsome young Captain Holland was Oscar Wilde's eldest son."

The speaker, a New York publisher, resumed, thoughtfully:

"Oscar Wilde in his youth was himself brave and handsome, and also very amusing. Once, when a student at the University of Oxford, he was ordered as a punishment for levity to sit down and copy out the twenty-seventh chapter of Acts.

"He copied away diligently for some time, and then his tutor said:

"You may stop now, Mr. Wilde."

"But Wilde kept right on copying."

"Didn't you hear me say that you might stop?" the tutor asked a half hour later.

"Oh, yes, sir," Wilde answered, "I heard you; but I was so interested in what I was copying that I couldn't leave off. It's about a man named Paul, who went on a voyage and was caught in a storm. I'll just keep on, if you don't mind, sir, till I find out whether the poor fellow got drowned or not."

VALUABLE HELPMET.

"Do you admire the clinging vine type of woman, or the self-reliant kind?"

"That depends on the circumstances," answered Mr. Blobbins. "It is pleasant sometimes to play the role of protector to helpless femininity, but when I see the businesslike manner in which my wife takes off a punctured tire and puts on a new one, scorning all assistance from me, I realize that I couldn't get along without her."

THE ONE WHO GETS IT.

"You wouldn't pass a bad coin on a blind man, would you?"

"Certainly not. And I don't think I could ever be tempted to pass a bad coin on a blind man."

"Why not?"

"Because I've never seen a trolley car conductor who was blind."

EXPLAINED.

"Sims has a cryptic way of talking."

"I guess that's because he used to be tongue tied."

GASTRONOMIC MISTAKE.

"This condiment is so hot I can't eat it."

"Why, my wife said it was chilly sauce."

ITS KIND.

"When they rowed out to fish, Dick would talk so, Bill gave him a good slap in the boat."

"Ah! 'twas a fishing smack, then."

SOUNDED THAT WAY.

Patience—I like to see a man act and not talk.

Patrice—Oh, you mean to say you like the pantomime actors best.

Stopped Those Pains.

Copper Hill, Va.—Mrs. Ida Conner, of this place, says: "For years, I had a pain in my right side, and was very sick with womanly troubles. I tried different doctors but could get no relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I took Cardui, and it relieved the pain in my side, and now I feel like a new person. It is a wonderful medicine." Many women are completely worn-out and discouraged on account of some womanly trouble. Are you? Take Cardui the woman's tonic. Its record shows that it will help you. Why wait? Try it today. Ask your druggist about it.—Advertisement.

His Long-Lost Five Dollars.

An elderly gentleman of rural appearance had hardly seated himself in the cross-town car when a young lady who had followed him approached him. "Did you lose a $5 bill?" she asked, according to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. For a moment the farmer observed her with a surprised, curious look, then said convincingly: "Yes, ma'am, I did." "Then here it is," said she, handing the bill to him. "I picked it up behind you from the car floor." "Thank you very much, young lady, for your honesty. This is a most remarkable happening." "Oh, I don't think so, sir. I believe everyone should return the money in such a case as this. What is there so remarkable about it?" "Why, I lost my $5 two years ago."

Avoid Spring Colds.

Sudden changes, high winds, shifting seasons cause colds and grippe, and these spring colds are annoying and dangerous and are likely to turn into a chronic summer cough. In such cases take a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, a pleasant Laxative Tea Syrup. It soothes the cough, checks the cold and helps break up an attack of grippe. Its already prepared, no mixing or fussing. Just ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Tested and tried for over 40 years.—Advertisement.

Time to Lie Still.

"Can you play dead in a battle scene?" "Dat's easy." "Not so easy as you think. You mustn't jump when the cannon are fired over your prostrate body."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Keep Your Skin Clear and Healthy.

There is only one way to have a clear, healthy complexion and that is to keep the bowels active and regular. Dr. King's New Life Pills will make your complexion healthy and clear, move the bowels gently, stimulate the liver, cleanse the system and purify the blood. A splendid spring medicine. 25c. at your Druggist.—Advertisement

STEEL THAT STAYS BRIGHT

Product Now Being Made in America,
It is Said, Will Not Rust
or Corrode.

A steel that will neither rust nor tarnish has been discovered and is being made commercially in the United States, says the Iron Trade Review. The importance of this invention can hardly be exaggerated. Rust and corrosion are the great enemies of iron and steel. Cut through a lemon with your pocket knife and it comes out tarnished—corroded; stop the street cars, even for a few hours, and the rails are yellow with rust. Various more or less clumsy expedients have been adopted to fight this condition. For fine tableware the metal is silver plated, galvanized or painted. Sooner or later the coating fails, then rust and corrosion start their work of destruction. The loss of steel through rust in the United States has been estimated at 1,000,000 tons a year, valued in the crude, semifinished state at from $30,000,000 to $40,000,000.

The new stainless steel need not be plated or otherwise coated, and it stays bright under all conditions of weather and usage. For years scientists have been seeking such a metal for tableware, pocket knives, watch cases, for certain parts of typewriters, guns, sewing machines, automobiles, bicycles and for countless other uses. Table knives forged of this metal can be used with impunity to cut acid fruits with no fear of stain and the knife will remain bright without incessant scouring that is a bugbear to every household.

HIS CHIEF DELIGHT

Marjorie—Don't you think Mr. Bragg suffers from exaggerated ego?
Virginia—No; he doesn't suffer. It's his chief pleasure.

SELF-PITY.

"I'm sorry for the man who is married to a nagging woman," said Mr. Meekers.

Knowing his unhappy wedded life, those who heard the remark stared at him in some surprise, but said nothing.

"Yes," continued Mr. Meekers, more earnestly, "and frequently in the morning while shaving I say to him, 'You poor, unfortunate wretch!'"

AN APPREHENSION.

"Is that dog of yours intelligent?"

"Yessuh," replied Erastus Pinkley. "He kin do everything but talk an' sometimes when he's been out late wif me in de evenin' I's kind o' skawered dat he might take a sudden notion to do dat."

PROVED TO THE CONTRARY.

"I don't see," she said, "how a man of forty-seven can retain any romance."

"I have five thousand copies of my last one left," responded he sadly.

AN OPPOSING DEAL.

"What did Jims say about his supposed friends?"

"That it was a raw deal they cooked up for him."

PARADOXICAL PROOF.

"Do you think he honestly likes my looks?"

"I should judge so from his stolen glances at them."

MEAN HINT.

Nell—I could tell you of a lot of men who wanted my hand.

Belle—You must have fared well in the deal.

NATURALLY.

"Jinks says it takes a lot of head-work to run his business."

"What is it?"

"A lady's hairdresser."

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armour glistening just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give you

FREE—"Europe at War"

A big book and over 300 pages, size 10 x 7 inches, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, containing the dramatic history of the great events leading up to the present time; over 50 important and timely special articles by experts on the different phases of the conflict; hundreds of graphic pictures, portraits, photographs, diagrams, specially drawn war maps, illuminating statistical records, copies of official documents and diplomatic messages exchanged between the powers—a clear, vivid, accurate, permanent, interesting and valuable record—a record which once seen you will not willingly be without. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hundreds of illustrations graphically tell their own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thrillingly told that it leaves an indelible impression.

"A WONDERFUL ADVENTURE."

Dorothy Green, who appears as Mazora, the Mystic in "The Wonderful Adventure," by the noted author, Captain Wilbur Lawton, the most recent William Fox production starring William Farnum, featured in "Samson," "The Gilded Fool," "The Plunderer," etc., owns a magnificent Persian cat, a blue ribbon winner and of blood royal, who appears in the boudoir scenes of the photoplay in which Mazora casts her spell about John Demarest (William Farnum.)

Mr. Farnum in his character of John Stanley (Demarest's double) is supposed to own a magnificent collie which was obtained from the famous J. P. Morgan kennels. The first day the collie appeared in the scene in which John Stanley meets Mazora there was the flash of a furry body through the air and then a dismaying yowl as Miss Green's $2,000 cat fastened her claws into the neck of Mr. Farnum's $1,500 collie. In the fight that ensued the camera was upset. Frederick Thompson, the director, and Mr. Farnum, who undertook to separate the combatants, were both badly clawed and Miss Green fainted. At the finish of the hostilities the cat proved victorious and another dog had to be obtained, as no inducements would lead the other canine performer to return to the studio.

BOARD OF CONTROL MEMBERS

Robert A. Cook and W. J. Figg are Named as Republicans By Gov. Stanley.

WILL TAKE SEATS AT ONCE

Popular Hopkinsville Man Will Resign As a Member of the Kentucky Legislature.

Frankfort Ky., March 14.—Gov. Stanley late yesterday afternoon appointed Representative Robert A. Cook, of Hopkinsville, and Magistrate W. J. Figg of Shelbyville, to the state Board of Control to succeed Dr. T. W. Gardiner, of Madisonville, and Thomas A. Hall, of Frankfort, the two Republican members.

Dr. Gardiner's term expired more than a year ago, and he was re-appointed by Gov. McCreary, but his name was never sent to the senate. The term of Mr. Hall expired the first of the year. Both the new members will take their seats as soon as they make bond and qualify.

Esq. Figg is one of the best-known farmers of Shelby county, a leading member of the Baptist church and a popular citizen. Representative Cook has been a personal friend, though political foe, to Gov. Stanley all his life. He was born and reared in Christian county and was County Assessor and Deputy Sheriff before taking up the practice of law. Mr. Cook was two years in the Auditor's office under James and was Assistant Secretary of State the last two years of the Willson administration.

Hon. Barksdale Hamlett was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday having just returned from Martinsville, Ind., where he took a course of treatment for nervous disorders. He has entirely recovered and is tired of politics. He is looking into the situation in several Western Kentucky cities with a view to locating for the practice of law. He went to Frankfort last night.

John P. Thomas has returned from a business trip to Boston.

Mrs. J. A. Barbee has returned to her home in Guthrie, after a short visit to friends and relatives in the city.

Mrs. Thomas Duke, of Wallonia, who spent a few days with friends and relatives in the city, returned home the first of the week.

Four Birthdays In 20 Years.

In New York City February 29 two cousins, Mark D. Stoll, of New York, son of Charles O. Stoll, of Marion, O., and Paul F. Ireys, of Chicago, son of George Ireys, of Boulder, Colo., though 20 years old, celebrated their fourth birthday anniversaries. Their mothers were sisters, and they were born on the same day 12 hours apart.

Mark Stoll and Paul Ireys were not only born on the same day in the same leap year, but each weighed nine pounds, each was born on North Main street in Marion, and neither had a birthday until he was 8 years old, because being born February 29, 1896, there was no February 29 in the century year, and so they had to wait until 1904 for their first birthday.

JURY DISCHARGED

After Hanging Two Days In Renshaw Case.

The jury which heard the case of Ernest Wilson and "Bubber" Chafin, both colored, charged with the murder of former Sheriff John M. Renshaw, reported Monday afternoon they were unable to agree, and were finally discharged.

The jury stood eleven to one for conviction. This was the most important criminal prosecution before this term of court.

The trial occupied all of the court's time last week, even one night session being held. More than a hundred witnesses were examined, and the total cost to the state will run over a thousand dollars.

This is the second trial, the first resulting in a life sentence. This was reversed by the court of appeals.

Mr. Renshaw was shot on the afternoon of Sept. 23, 1914, as he was driving into town. He lived two weeks, but never regained consciousness. The evidence against the negroes was circumstantial, and on their side they relied upon an alibi.

Real Athletics.

PRINCETON LOSES

S. P. Pool Sues City For $8,000 And Gets Verdict For $2,000.

The damage suit of S. P. Pool against the City of Princeton was begun Wednesday morning, and the evidence was completed at adjourning hour, and the jury were taken to examine the premises. The case was argued yesterday and submitted to the jury, and after deliberating for about an hour they returned verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,500.

The suit grew out of the city connecting its sewer system with the underground cavern in 1907. The action was to recover damages, and also to compel the city to cease using the underground cavern. The plaintiff sued for $8,000 damages.

The City was perpetually enjoined from further or longer connecting its sewers with the cavern, and is ordered to remove and disconnect all its sewers. The City is given six months to comply with the order. An appeal was granted.

Motion was entered for a new trial by the city, and the case will likely be appealed in the event this motion is overruled.—Leader.
